

COPENHAGEN ROYAL CHAPEL CHOIR KØBENHAVNS DRENGEKOR

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS
THE PRINCE CONSORT OF DENMARK

Ebbe Munk, Director and Chief Conductor

Since 1991 Ebbe Munk has been chief conductor of the COPENHAGEN ROYAL CHAPEL CHOIR and choirmaster of the Copenhagen Cathedral.

In 1986 he founded the Chamber Choir VOX DANICA which specialised in contemporary Nordic music and in 1991 won the first prize in Concours Internationales de Chant Chorale in France.

From 1982 until 1991 he was conductor of Sankt Annæ Youth Choir.

With Copenhagen Royal Chapel Choir he has conducted the major choral repertoire together with leading Danish orchestras, f.ex. Copenhagen Symphony Orchestra and Concerto Copenhagen as well as with baroque ensembles such as Dufay Collective (London), Oxford Philomusica and Ensemble Lascaris (Nice).

Ebbe Munk has been touring with the Copenhagen Royal Chapel Choir in all parts of the world – at leading international festivals as well as in concert halls and in cathedrals such as Sydney Opera House, Beijing Concert Hall, Cathedrale Notre Dame (Paris), Washington National Cathedral, Hong Kong Centre of the Performing arts, Sala Saô Paolo and Teatre Municipal in Rio de Janeiro.

Ebbe Munk has been conducting and jury-member at several choir seminars in Denmark and abroad – in the autumn of 1999 at Princeton University's North America Conference for Choral Conductors, and he is since 2002 artistic counsellor of the Fédération des Choeurs de l'Union in Bruxelles. Also in 2002 he received a Grammy in Danish Music Awards for his recording of Buxtehude's Cantatas together with Dufay Collective, London and the Copenhagen Royal Chapel Choir. Together with the CRCC Ebbe Munk was honoured in Paris by l'Institut de France-Académie des Beaux-Arts with the Prix Chant choral Liliane Bettencourt.
